III. INFRINGEMENT

A. Infringement of the ‘979 Patent

7. On April 5, 2005, U.S. Patent No. 6,876,979 (“the ‘979 patent”, attached as Exhibit A) entitled “Electronic Commerce Bridge System” was duly and legally issued by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. AML IP, LLC owns the ‘979 patent by assignment.

8. The ‘979 patent relates to a novel and improved methods and apparatuses for conducting electronic commerce.

9. Payment Approved maintains, operates, and administers payment products and services that facilitate purchases from a vendor using a bridge computer that infringes one or more claims of the ‘979 patent, including one or more of claims 1-13, literally or under the doctrine of equivalents. Defendant put the inventions claimed by the ‘979 Patent into service (i.e., used them); but for Defendant’s actions, the claimed-inventions embodiments involving Defendant’s products and services would never have been put into service. Defendant’s acts complained of herein caused those claimed-invention embodiments as a whole to perform, and Defendant’s procurement of monetary and commercial benefit from it.

10. Support for the allegations of infringement may be found in the following preliminary table:
